Superlative

1 Pay attention to these sentences from the previous texts and answer the question that follows.

Chichén Itzá is possibly the most famous temple city of the Mayas [...]

The ruined city is among the best known remnants of the Inca civilization [...]

[...] the Great Wall is the world's longest human-made structure [...]

What are the landmarks compared to?

() They are compared to the rest of the group they belong to (example: among all walls, this is the longest one).

() They are compared to another similar thing or place
(example: this wall is longer than the other wall).

2 In order to form the superlative, you have to pay attention to the length of the adjective.

a) Match the expressions in bold from the sentences with the rules:

i. The most famous

More than one syllable (the most + adjective)

ii. The best

One syllable adjective (add -est)

iii. The longest

Irregular form (good)

b) What is common in all superlative cases above?

3 Check some of the rules to make superlative adjectives. Where can you add the examples from activity 2?
