

let's listen!

1 Work in pairs. Use the questions below to discuss your use of social media.

- a) How many social media websites do you use?
- b) What do you post about?
- c) How often do you post on social media?
- d) How much screen time (cell phones, tablets, and computers) do you have on an average day?
- e) Have you ever used an app to track your screen time? What do you think of this type of software?
- f) Do your parents or other family members complain about the amount of time you spend online?

Track 13

2 Listen to a teenager talking about her use of social media and try to identify some information about her.

- a) Her name and age: _____
- b) She spends a daily average of ___ on Instagram.
 - () 15 minutes
 - () 50 minutes
- c) She spends ___ a year on Instagram.
 - () 18,200 minutes
 - () 80,200 minutes
- d) According to her phone, her screen time amounts to
 - () 7 hours/448 minutes a day.
 - () 7 hours/448 minutes a week.

3 Listen again and answer the following questions.

- a) Does she think she is addicted to her phone?

- b) What experiment is she conducting?

4 Discuss with a partner.

- a) Do you think Ava's addicted to her phone?
- b) Are you similar to her?
- c) How successful do you think Ava was in her experiment? How difficult do you think it was?
- d) Which lessons do you think she learned from that experiment?

Track 14

5 Listen to the result of the experiment and decide if the sentences are true (T) or false (F).

- a) () The experiment was successful. Ava learned she can exist without social media.
- b) () She has spent time with people she loves.
- c) () She feels she needs to post about everything now.
- d) () She decided to have better boundaries for her phone use.
- e) () Ava wants to keep her screen time below thirteen hours.

3 Read the rules again on page 14 and complete the sentences with the missing words.

- a) There's not a fixed number of _____ but all of them will need _____ and _____.
- b) The rounds always start with a what if _____.
- c) Every player will have to write an _____ for the hypothetical situation beginning with "_____".
- d) No player can write the answer on the same _____ he/she wrote the question.
- e) Questions and answers can be either _____ or _____. You will have fun both ways.

let's listen!

1 Famous Indian actors Chunkey Panday and his daughter Ananya Panday decided to play the What if...? game. Listen to part of the game and answer the questions.

a) Who asks the questions?

b) What are the questions about?

2 Listen again and choose the correct answers.

a) Question 1

- () He'd catch her phone.
- () He'd use an app on his phone.
- () He'd call the police.

b) Question 2

- () He'd take her money off.
- () He'd go shopping with her.
- () He'd call the Indian tax department.

c) Question 3

- () He'd ask why she's quitting the family business.
- () He'd let her choose another job.
- () He'd cry and ask her not to quit.

d) Question 4

- () He'd help her moving out.
- () He'd buy her the upstairs place.
- () He'd buy her a big house.

