U2 made this heartfelt song for the newly released film “Mandela: Long Walk To Freedom,” a biopic on the man himself. When “Ordinary Love” dropped weeks ago, it was first new material from the rock band since 2010’s “Soon,” premiered on the “U2 360 at the Rose Bowl” soundtrack. With lyrics like, “We cannot reach any higher/If we can’t feel ordinary love,” Bono tried to embody what Mandela stood for.
