Aladdin

Why: It's splashy, classic Broadway with a Disney sensibility: a cute story combined with massive production values and the iconic songs you already _____ (love).

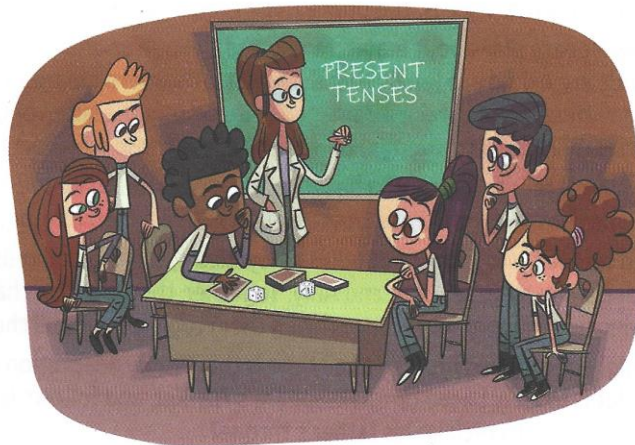

What: Nearly 20 years after the animated Aladdin, Disney presented this stage adaptation. While _____ (there be) some new songs [...] and new characters (Aladdin now _____ (have) a trio of human sidekicks, rather than his monkey Abu), the heart of the story _____ (remain) the same: a poor boy _____ (fall) in love with a restless princess and _____ (enlist) the help of a wisecracking genie to raise his status so he can be an eligible suitor. The new additions _____ (make) the show run a bit long — 2 hours and 35 minutes — but the sheer joy of watching "Friend Like Me" and "A Whole New World" _____ (come) to life _____ (be) worth the time it _____ (take).
